Pay and Benefits

UPD Pays on a bi-weekly pay cycle with 26 pay periods per year.

Experienced law enforcement officers (Laterals) will receive one-year credit for each year of completed service in a category one LEO capacity for purposes of pay.

*In 2010 and 2011 UPD did not receive a raise due to the pay freeze; officers coming to UPD with 9 or more years of service will lose up to two years towards pay so there pay will match that of a comparable UPD officer with the same number of years.

2018-2019 UPD Payscale

I am an out-of-state candidate and have current or prior law enforcement experience. Am I required to take the NPOST?

No. Lateral candidates from out of state do not have to take or provide the NPOST test results, as long as they qualify as a Lateral Police Officer with 1 year of full time experience as a police officer.

I am an out-of-state candidate and have current or prior law enforcement experience. Am I required to attend the Utah police academy?

No if you successfully challenge the UTAH POST waiver PT and Written exams. Contact POST for information to complete this process.
