In an Emergency!

CALL 911

When you or someone needs help now—you've got an emergency! An emergency requires immediate action, due to possible injury or death, or the destruction or loss of property. Call 9-1-1 in situations like the following:

- ◆ A crime in progress
- ◆ A fire or heavy smoke that suspect
- ◆ Someone forcing a child in a car
- ◆ Traffic accident with injuries
- ◆ A fight or domestic violence in progress
- ◆ Screaming or cries for help
- ◆ Gunshots
- ◆ Burglar alarm or glass breaking
- ◆ A serious or life threatening injury
- ◆ WILL I: Save a life or stop a crime?

Information to Give

Give the exact address of the incident or directions from your location (i.e. one house to the north). Give an apartment number or business name, if any.

Describe the situation. When did the incident occur? Any injuries? How bad? Is a weapon involved? What kind?

Any suspects? Which direction did they go? Be specific—west, northeast, south. Describe the suspects age, facial details, hair, clothing, height, weight distinguishing marks or characteristics.

Any vehicles involved? Describe them giving make, model, body style, year, color, identifying marks or features, license plate number.

Give your name and a call back number. If the incident is still in progress, the dispatcher may ask you to stay on the phone to provide continuous information until the deputies arrive. You may also choose to be anonymous.

If you feel endangered, say so, and the dispatcher will give you steps to take. In the case of injuries, Unified Fire will

In A Non-Emergency

Call 743-7000

Use the Unified Police Departments non-emergency number for circumstances which might need the attention of a patrol officer, but which do not represent an immediate threat to life or property. A dispatcher is available twenty-four hours a day to answer your call. The following situations would apply:

Suspicious Behavior

- If someone is looking into vehicles or walking and out of back yards, or loitering on private property.
- If someone is approaching doors and asking unusual questions or soliciting without proper purpose or valid license.
